Dear Mr. Wagner

--- Right now I'm so far behind in my work I just cannot do anything. I try hard to answer the more than a dozen letters a day I get that call for an answer, but I'm going to have to stop that for, going on about four hours a night of sleep, I am still unable to fill the speaking engagements offered, all the radio and TV opportunities, read the paper, go out to a meal, and with all I'm a month behind on the next book.

Much as I'd like to know all I can about the Bolden case, there is nothing I can now do about it and I do not want you to be under any misapprehension. Whatever you send me I'll use if the opportunity ever arrises, and I can always offer it to others working in the field.

I wish it were otherwise, but it isn't.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
